

LEAGUE of EXTRAORDINARY GAMERS

GUIDELINES FOR THE LXG ANNUAL SALE

Once per year the League of Extraordinary Gamers hosts an annual sale of tabletop games. This is open to anyone; you don't have to be a member of the club. LXG does take an administrative fee of 10%, calculated on all your sales.

The 2024 sale will take place at the Queensland Contract Bridge Club, 67 Ipswich Road, Woolloongabba QLD 4102. There is free parking under and behind the building (accessed via Wilton Street). The best access point for unloading games is the rear car park (disregard the restricted parking signs).

How Do I Sell My Games?

You need to have your games available at the address before 8am on Sunday 15th September. You must have completed an LXG Bring and Buy Form, including your contact details; Product ID number; a brief description; and your selling price (don't fill out the 'sold for price'). You also need to put a removable sticker on each game you are selling with the price and corresponding product ID number.

The Product ID number must be your initials followed by a three digit number. For instance Keith Done would use KD001 as his first Product ID number; then KD002; KD 003 etc. If a person has the same initials as you this would have been identified when you asked for this form and an alternate set of initials will be allocated.

The club will be open on Saturday 14th from 5pm – 8pm to drop in games. It will reopen on Sunday at 8am for final acceptance of games. All unsold games must be removed by their owners between 4pm and 5pm on Sunday 15th September.

Do I Have to Be There to Sell My Games?

No, a desk crewed by LXG officials will receipt money via cash transactions and by EFTPOS, using the Bring and Buy Forms you have provided. You may stay with your games if you prefer; but all funds must be receipted through the LXG accounts. You may wish to play games socially in the separate games area; but if you leave the premises you must return by 4pm to collect your funds and remove your unsold games from the site. Failure to do will mean the games will be incorporated into the LXG library. The area that we sell the games is relatively secure, however LXG bear no responsibility for any games that are damaged or go missing from the site.

Payment

LXG Staff will total your sales records starting from 4pm. You may be paid in cash that afternoon, or by an electronic transfer of funds within 7 days. An administrative fee of 10% of your total sales will be deducted from your total sales.
